What a wonderful thing love is to a woman! How it helps ber to know that some one is always fond of her, and rejoices when she rejoices, and sorrows when she grieves; to be sure that her faults are loved, and that her face is fairer to one, at least, than faces that are more beautiful-that one great heart holds her sacred to its innermost reverses above all other women! She can do anything, suffer anything, thus upheld. She grows prettier under the sweet influences, brighter, kinder, stronger, and life seems but a foretaste of heaven, and all her dreams are golden.
